

South Dakota Summit on Interprofessional Education

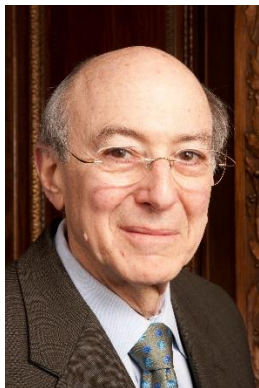

Courageous Conversations- Courageous Decisions

Tuesday, August 15, 2017

9:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m.

Arrowwood Cedar Shore
Oacoma, South Dakota

Keynote Speaker
Dr. Stephen C. Schoenbaum

Overall Purpose for this Retreat

To strengthen the participant's ability to lead the transformation of health professional education designed to develop skills in interprofessional practice focused on the Quadruple Aim (quality, cost and population health, employee satisfaction).

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Stephen C. Schoenbaum

Dr. Schoenbaum is a Special Advisor to the President of the Josiah Macy Jr. Foundation, a grant-making organization that fosters innovations in medical and other health professions education.

He has extensive experience as a clinician, epidemiologist, and manager. From 2000-2010, he was Executive Vice President for Programs at The Commonwealth Fund and Executive Director of its Commission on a High Performance Health System. Prior to that, he was the medical director and then president of Harvard Pilgrim Health Care of New England, a mixed model HMO delivery system in Providence, RI.

Dr. Schoenbaum is Adjunct Professor of Healthcare Leadership at Brown University, and the author of over 175 professional publications. He was vice-chairman of the board of the former Picker Institute, an organization that promoted patient-centered care and former president of the board of the American College of Physician Executives, now the American Association for Physician Leadership. He chairs the International Advisory Committee to the Joyce and Irving Goldman Medical School in Israel. He is also a fellow of the American College of Physicians and an honorary fellow of the Royal College of Physicians.

Session Objectives

- I. Discuss the advancement of Interprofessional Education (IPE) infrastructure in supporting enhanced communication and related efforts for health systems and the education and training of health professionals since the initial summit in August of 2013
- II. Discuss the maturation of emerging work between SD-IPEC and NEXUS
- III. Describe the impact return of interprofessional work in IPE, collaborative practice and efforts in achieving the Quadruple Aim.
- IV. Identify ongoing gaps in IPE, collaborative practice, and achievement of the Quadruple Aim.
- V. Develop a collaborative action plan to address IPE priority needs in South Dakota

Registration

Your nonrefundable registration fee of $50 includes a continental breakfast, lunch and afternoon break.

To register go to:

<https://www.cognitofirms.com/YanktonRuralAHEC/2017SouthDakotaSummitOnInterprofessionalEducation>

- ⇒ Each person must complete the registration form even if paying as a group or by invoice.
- ⇒ Once registered, all participants will receive by email:
1. A confirmation of registration
 2. A link to a short pre-conference survey which must be completed by August 1st

Hotel Accommodations

A block of rooms has been secured at Arrowwood Cedar Shore. Please call 605.734.6376 no later than August 1, 2017 to make your reservation.

Schedule

Morning Session

9:00—9:15 a.m.

Welcome and Opening Comments
Dr. Lana Svien and Dr. Julie Johnson

9:15—10:15 a.m.

Keynote Presentation

“IPE and Collaborative Practice: State-of-the-Art & Need for More Science”

Dr. Stephen C. Schoenbaum, MD, MPH
Special Advisor to the President of the Josiah Macy Jr. Foundation

10:15—10:30 a.m. Break

10:30—12:00 p.m.

- Project Updates and Work Session—Educating and Training for Interprofessional Collaboration and for Achieving the Quadruple Aim

12:00—1:00 p.m. Lunch

Schedule

Afternoon Session

The Art of Hosting – working sessions

1:00—1:40 p.m.

- Powerful Question #1 – What has been emerging in your circle of influence regarding IPE in the last two years?

1:45—2:25 p.m.

- Powerful Question #2 – What needs our immediate attention to be successful going forward?

2:30—2:45 p.m. Break

2:45—3:25 p.m.

- Powerful Question #3 – What bold action steps might we choose to mature our current IPE progress in SD?

3:25—4:00 p.m. Present Action Plans

Continuing Education

Certificates of attendance will be available. Certificates will include:

- Conference Title
- Date
- Name
- Number of hours attended

Disclosure

- Successful completion of this program includes being present for 90% of the conference and completion/submission of an evaluation form at the end of the conference.

Conference Co-Providers

- USD School of Health Science
 - Interprofessional Health Education Center
- South Dakota AHEC Centers
 - Yankton Rural Area Health Education Center
 - Northeast South Dakota Rural Area Health Education Center
 - USD Sanford School of Medicine AHEC Program Office
- SD Center for Nursing Workforce
- Innovation Circle (comprised of Nursing leaders from practice and education)