Overview:

Critical access hospitals are required to comply with CMS conditions of participation. There are commonly cited deficiencies during standard surveys and complaint investigations of critical access hospitals. This presentation identifies the top-cited regulations and explains the regulation and why they are found noncompliant.

Learning Objectives:

At the conclusion of this session, participants will be able to:

- Describe and discuss why an accredited hospital must comply with CMS regulations.
- Explain the implications of a condition-level deficiency.
- Describe commonly cited deficiencies.
- Explain the regulations and related interpretive guidelines for each deficiency.
