JEFF GOLDSMITH

THURSDAY, JULY 23, 12:00 - 1:00 PM CST

THE POST-COVID-19 HEALTH CARE LANDSCAPE: IMPLICATIONS FOR STRATEGY

Jeff Goldsmith, President, Health Futures Inc. | What will the United States health system look like post-COVID-19? Hospitals will be facing the financial after effects of a COVID-19 related economic slowdown or recession. Hospitals also will have to deal with the political uncertainties created by the 2020 national election. Finally, they will face the continued threat of disruption of their existing businesses by new technologies and new competitors. What are the most significant opportunities; and threats in this post-COVID-19 landscape? How do health system boards and leadership set strategic priorities for this uncertain, near-term future? Goldsmith will present his thoughts on the above mentioned questions.

DAYNA BOWEN MATTHEW

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6, 12:00 - 1:00 PM CST

HOW HOSPITALS CAN LEAD A "QUIET REVOLUTION" FOR HEALING DURING A PANDEMIC

Dayna Bowen Matthew, Dean, George Washington University Law School | Dayna Bowen Matthew, JD, Ph.D., is the new dean for George Washington University Law School in Washington, DC. She holds an appointment in the School of Medicine's Department of Public Health Sciences, and as a Robert Wood Johnson Health Policy Fellow, worked on Capitol Hill, helping to address public health disparities for disadvantaged communities. Because of her great experience in this area, Matthew will identify the historic and contemporary role that health providers can play in increasing health equity. In addition, she defines the need for health care equity during the COVID-19 pandemic and the threats to health equity that have been heightened as a result of this challenging period.

DR. KEVIN AHMAAD JENKINS

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 12:00 - 1:00 PM CST

THE 21ST CENTURY CHALLENGES OF HEALTH EQUITY

Dr. Kevin Ahmaad Jenkins, Core Investigator at the Center for Health Equity Research and Promotion (CHERP) at the Corporal Crescenz VA Medical Center in Philadelphia | From broken community partnerships to diminished funding, how do we overcome the 21st Century Challenges of Health Equity? This presentation motivates clinicians, researchers, and healthcare leaders to explore the role, recognition, and remediation of inequity in medicine. This presentation teaches healthcare providers and biomedical researchers how to clinically confront the deadly "isms" that prevent quality care and public wellness. In addition, Dr. Jenkins will be addressing the important issues of systemic racism and unconscious/implicit bias and the impact that they will have on delivering quality care to all.

TOM KOULOPOULOS

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 12:00 - 1:00 PM CST

THE NEW HEALTH CARE ECOSYSTEM

Tom Koulopoulos, Chairman, Global Futures Think Tank the Delphi Group | What the COVID-19 crisis has made abundantly clear is that the current health care ecosystem is ill-prepared to deal with the type of health care needs that will be typical of the 21st century. With an aging global demographic that will put more than half of the world's population in the 60+ age group by 2060, the world's real health care crisis has barely begun. The challenge is not advances in medicine, the threat of future pandemics, or our ability to develop new pharmaceuticals and therapies, but rather a healthcare ecosystem that puts payer against provider, forces gaming of the system, poorly orchestrated supply chains, and the enormous burden on providers to handle so many of the administrative aspects of healthcare. The best hope for healthcare is to rethink how to refocus every part of the health care ecosystem on what it does best.
