Launching January 2023

Nurse leadership program for current and emerging leaders, customized for South Dakota nurses and led by an experienced, professional development nurse and other industry experts.

PROGRAM INCLUDES

SDAHO's Nurse Leadership program builds leadership, communication, and critical thinking skills through instruction and experiences provided by industry experts. This program provides current and emerging nurse leaders with the knowledge and skills needed in a healthcare leadership position.

One of the primary focuses of the 2023 program is to provide hands-on resources and education on communicating effectively, through an interactive Crucial Conversations© training.

In addition to the leadership sessions, Debra Morello, SDAHO's RN Clinical Educator and Nursing Professional Development Specialist will provide support and consultation to nurse participants.
