1. Does my protected person have an existing Living Will?
   - If yes, do I have a copy of it?
   - If no, where can I get a copy of it?

2. Do the healthcare providers involved in my protected person’s care have a copy of the Living Will?
   - If no, to which providers do I send a copy:

3. Does my protected person have an existing healthcare power of attorney?

4. If the healthcare power of attorney is someone other than you, the guardian, is the power of attorney aware of the guardianship and your role in now making healthcare decisions?
   - If no, date you sent a copy of the guardianship papers to the healthcare agent:

5. Do the healthcare providers involved in my protected person’s care have a copy of the guardianship papers so they know to void any existing healthcare power of attorney form they may have?
   - If no, date you sent the guardianship paperwork:

6. Does my protected person have an existing Comfort One order?
   - If yes, do I have a copy of it?
     - If no, where can I get a copy of it?

7. If my protected person does not have a Comfort One order, should I consider obtaining one from the healthcare provider?
   - If yes, date of appointment with the healthcare provider:

8. Does my protected person have an existing MOST?
   - If yes, do I have a copy of it?
     - If no, where can I get a copy of it?

9. If my protected person does not have a MOST, should I consider obtaining one from the healthcare provider?
   - If yes, date of appointment with the healthcare provider:

10. If I completed a MOST for my protected person, which healthcare providers got a copy?